

The Repechage system explained.

Repechage simply means that when you have established who your two finalists are (one from each pool or one from the top half of the draw and one from the bottom) you will know who each of these finalists has beaten to reach the final.

In each half of the draw, or in each pool, the competitors that have been beaten by the finalists come back in for bronze.

Round 1	Round 2	Round 3 Semi-Final	Final
J.Bates	K Smith	K.Smith	S.Hall
K.Smith
A.Begley	R.Clarke
R.Clarke
J.Hughes	S.Hall	S.Hall
S.Hall
C.Hunter	G.Powell
G.Powell
C.Brook	C.Brook	A.Ford	I.Robinson
R.James
S.Harrison	A.Ford
A.Ford
T.Callaghan	T.Callaghan	I.Robinson
M.Wedgebury
I.Collett	I.Robinson
I.Robinson

The finalists are S hall from the top half of the draw or pool one and I. Robinson from the bottom half of the draw or pool two.

Finalist S. Hall has beaten J. Hughes, G. Powell and K. Smith.

J. Hughes will now play G. Powell the winner of this bout will play K. Smith. The winner of this bout receives 3rd place from the top half of the draw.

Finalist I. Robinson has beaten I. Collett, T. Callaghan and A. Ford.

I. Collett now plays T. Callaghan. The winner of this bout plays A. Ford. The winner of this bout receives 3rd place from the bottom half of the draw.